FINANCE AND TRADE.

OUR COTTON MARKET review at the close of last week quoted the price of middling in New York at 17c; on Thursday it advanced to 17 le, an advance of le during the week. New Orleans a week ago quoted 16jc, which on Thursday fell to 16 c, a decline of lic during the week. Liverpool at the con clusion of last week's review quoted Sid, and so remains. Memphis quoted 16je, which, on Friday, advanced to 164c, an advance of ic during the week. This statement shows advances in New York and Memphis, but New Orleans has declined. In our market for the time of the year the demand has been good, and the sales would have been double what they have been, at the least, if the cottons wanted could have been found. We have now a stock of 670° bales, but so large a portion of it is held on limits above current prices that buyer a could not fill their orders. The crop ne was is less favorable; the crop is complained of in some parts as suffering from wet; in the district around Memphis the trouble lies in drouth-burning days and no rain are drying up vegetation. An Albany, Georgia, writer, who dates July 24th, says: "The crop is less favorable; of Middling. 24th, says: "The crop is less favora-le than at this date last year. It is full v Sith, says: three weeks later, is not so good a stand, and not as well-formed or bolled, long-jointed and big-leaved from too rapid growth from June 1st to July 15th, during which time it rained inessantly. The last rain was on July 15th; until rday we had good rains extending all over the country, and which came just in the nick of time to save the crop just in the nick of time to save the crop from mut and stop the shedding of fruit. If we can have occasional showers just at the right time from this out the prosat the right time from this out the pres-pect will brighten, as there are yet seven weeks for it to make in, say to the twelfth of September. But yet, even with this, we seem doomed to disap-pointment and disaster. The caterpli-lar is upon us. We hoped that he had sclayed his coming so late that he would disaster. The caterpli-lar is upon us. defer entirely his visit this season; but not so. He has only kept pace with the crop, both three weeks behind time, and as only a very few, nonimally none (the decrease being ninety-eight per cent.), used fertilizers, of course they will catch it all. The past four days have thrown a beavy damper on our people, and all are despondent." The New York Bulletin, August 5th, says: "Hissispip has just now an aparatition of the army worm. Worms brought about by thoroughly natural causes. It would appear that for some months past the price of corn has ruled high, and in consequence the farmers have thrown it upon the market, in-stead of feeding it to the hoge as usual. Under these circomstances the hogs have not been fed so well as usual, and, have not been fed so well as usual, and, there'so e, they are thinner than they should be, and have not produced as much lard as is expected. This has rendered the supply much lower than usual, notwithstanding the extra num-ber of hogs killed, and the price has therefore advanced. In Port. A. J. White. Weather, Rivers and Business.

The weather was almost insufferably hot on Sunday, with little change for the better yesterday. Our thermometer, which is placed in what is considered a coul place, noted one hundred degrees in the shade at two o'clock. The river rose two inches by the gauge, and now stands nine feet eight inches above extreme low water mark. The Cumberland rose three inches at Nashville, the Ohio nine inches at Pitisburg, and the Mississippi one inch at St. Paul. Business continues very duli. Above low Changes.
